Dear Sheila

Re: Reserves generated through the sale of Council Houses

The above subject is generating a certain amount of unease as to how and when these reserves will actually be spent.

As we are now entering the “Master Plan” stage it would be helpful to know the following:

- Have any of these reserves been allocated, if so how much and for what?
- When will the reserves be spent?
- How will the reserves be used to benefit the residents of Tunbridge Wells borough?
- Will attention be given to those areas where the Council houses were purchased?
- Exactly what is the figure in reserve at present?
- Will the Town Forum be consulted on intended spend from those reserves in the unparished area?

While I am fully aware that we all face an uncertain world at present I believe it is important to ensure that residents do know what is happening to these monies and how they will benefit.

I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Yours sincerely
