

Tunbridge Wells District Neighbourhood Management Launch

Thursday 17 January 2008

Sheila Wheeler, Chief Executive Tunbridge Wells Borough Council
Joint Chair Tunbridge Wells Community Safety Partnership

Sheila Wheeler has been Chief Executive of Tunbridge Wells Borough Council since September 2005.

Previously she has worked in local government as a Finance Director for Adur District Council.

She has also worked for Surrey County council and the London Borough of Houslow where she trained as a public sector accountant on a 'women return to work scheme'. During her period at Surrey, she was seconded to central government to the then Office of the Deputy Prime Minister to work on the new capital finance system and the Spending Review 2002.

Sheila has also worked in the charity sector for the London Symphony Orchestra, based at the Barbican, as Company Secretary and Director of Finance.

Prior to working in local government, Sheila was a teacher of English and taught in Ireland, China and London.