

New Directors join Tunbridge Wells Borough Council

Tuesday 27 June 2006

Three new Directors have been taken on by Tunbridge Wells Borough Council to lead the new agenda identified through the changes to the Council's structure announced in March. They will help drive the organisation through its next phase of improvements.

The new Directors that will start working for the Borough Council on 11 September 2006 are:

- Director of Services to the Community - Richard Powell (53) currently Head of Economic Development and Community Services, Maidstone Borough Council
- Director of Change and Business Support - William Benson (33) currently Head of Change and Legal Services, Maidstone Borough Council
- Director of Planning and Development - Robert Cotterill (39) currently Head of Policy and Regeneration, Reigate and Banstead Borough Council

Cllr Melvyn Howell, Leader of the Council, said: 'We are looking forward to the arrival of the new Directors who will be working with our officers, local residents, businesses, stakeholders and partners to help lead the Council forward. Everyone at the Town Hall is looking forward to giving them a warm
